DEAN INTRODUCES FORMATION OF THE SCHOOLS OF PERFORMING ARTS

Dean has announced the creation of the Schools of Performing Arts, merging the best elements of the School of the Arts and the Joan Phelps Palladino School of Dance. As part of providing a multifaceted approach to performing arts education, this new school will harness the synergies of theatre, dance, music and arts management into one cohesive unit while offering students the flexibility to explore and refine their passions with professional rigor.

Dean's performance season kicked off this past weekend with Let It Be, a musical celebration of the Beatles, and will continue on through March. The full season includes six theatrical productions, four dance shows and multiple showcase performances. For more information, including how to purchase tickets, visit DEAN.EDU/BOXOFFICE.

ALMUNUS APPOINTED TO NEW ROLE FOR ATHLETICS AND RECREATION

Dean is excited to announce the new executive position of the Vice President of Athletics and Recreation. This role has been appointed to proud Dean alumnus Eric Lee, Esq., Class of 2008, and is designed to enhance the scope and quality of both formal athletic programs and recreational opportunities, ensuring a holistic, inclusive and vibrant campus life. During his first go-round at Dean, Lee was a standout athlete, excelling as captain of the football team that earned the first outright NJCAA Northeast Conference championship.

DEAN HONORED FOR EXCELLENCE IN HANDS-ON LEARNING AND STUDENT SUCCESS

Dean has once again been recognized as a College of Distinction for our commitment to providing a high-quality undergraduate education. Dean was also selected among a limited number of schools as an Affordable College of Distinction. Additionally, we've received badges for Business for the 8th year in a row and for Career Development for the 5th year in a row.

My favorite thing about Dean is that all of our faculty do a great job at putting what we learn into real-life context. We've seen real spreadsheets from different businesses that really put things into context and showed what the classes would be like in a real-life setting. Our faculty has made the world of a difference. The Dean Difference is that sense of community that you're always in. You never feel out of place, you always feel like you're part of one big family, and that is always a constant and always a given. - Maddie Frechette, '24

MENTAL HEALTH REMAINS A FOCUS IN THE 'ZEN DEN'

Toward the end of the Spring 2024 semester, Dean opened a highly-popular relaxation space on campus, called the 'Zen Den.' Funded primarily by the KyleCares Foundation, a local organization that focuses on mental health advocacy and suicide prevention, this space is a safe and quiet space for students to relax, decompress or meditate.

The 'Zen Den' is part of a larger campus initiative to ensure the holistic health of each and every student.
